"This is it... my last chance to make friends I have to not fail here" the small girl thought to herself as she was escorted to her new camp which would be her new home for the next month. a month that's how long she had to prove she wasn't a failure. Fawn was suddenly pushed into an elevator filled with people two other girls and four men well two men two boys really. She quickly gave them a look over and shook nervously when she felt a tap on her shoulder. She looked over and saw the more approachable girl looking at her " Uhm sweetie are yo okay you're shakin worse than a horse with a cold!" the girl exclaimed. Fawn quickly nodded " Oh uhm I'm fine! I I'm Fawn!" she said a little over excitedly. The girl chuckled softly " Did you have just sugar for breakfast you have more energy than a can of monster, I'm Fox don't be nervous stick with me and you'll be just fine" Fawn smiled softly " Thank you I'll try to calm down." Just as the sentence the elevator doors opened and they were pushed out an into a large living area where a tall Spartan girl "My name is wolf and I am your new pack leader I need to know your names and what you do after that I will partner you up understood?" They all nodded the tough looking girl spoke first her name was lynx then the biggest of the group of boys was Bear but he went by his name Bjrone,the tall lanky one was named Turtle , the smaller boy was named Phoenix, and then the last one was Hawk. Fox then introduced herself then it was Fawns turn " You red " Fawn quickly looked around "M-me? I'm I'm Fawn I work with cars and other vehicles" the commander nodded and started pairing up each of them " Bjorne and Lynx, Turtle and Phoenix, Fox and Fawn, and Hawk you're with me." Fawn let out a rather loud squeal and quickly ran over to fox. wolf led them to the training area where each set of partners were to train and then find their rooms which Hesita ,the AI, would lead them to. after sparing with fox for what seemed like forever they were dismissed and Hesita led them to their room. "Well here you are if you need anything just call for me and ill try to help." both of the girls nodded and went to their beds. fawn sat there not knowing what to do because Fox was already out cold on her bed. Fawn slowly got out of bed and decided to look around and quickly found herself in the kitchen. she immediately went to the fridge and started rummaging through everything because she was starved and lunch was terrible so she barley ate anything. while she was looking she felt a tp on her shoulder and jumped slightly. " C-commander!" she said with a nervously squeaky voice. Wolf chuckled " didn't eat that trash they call food ate the station huh?" Fawn relaxed a little and nodded "It was so totally gross" she said making a face then felt wolf pulling her out of the way and looked in the fridge then handed her a container" Mash potatoes and gravy I think they'll be a little cold though" Fawn smiled gratefully and quickly opened the container and took the for wolf handed her and practically scarfed down the food. " Thank you" she smiled softly. "So what's your story?" Fawn cocked her head and cocked at her " My story commander ? What do you mean?" She chuckled softly "ya know where you're from why you're here.. why this is your sixth group to be with?" she looked down "Oh that.. well my family I don't really remember them.. I was told they were killed by a house fire. I was put with a group called the Outsiders but I couldn't learn fast enough for their liking so I was then moved to another group but I couldn't keep up.. I kept tripping trying to run with them then the other three groups didn't want me because of my file so they told the commander they didn't have the room but I knew they really just didn't want to deal with me for any longer than they had to. So I made myself useful and started to isolate myself in the garage and take apart cars and tanks and bikes and put the back together that's how I got to be the best at what I do." wolf nodded. "Well don't worry I'm not going to ship you off you don't deserve that we'll work on trying to minimize your clumsiness. This is your new home and we'll be your new family if you need anything or just want someone to talk to my doors always open." Fawn quickly got up and hugged wolf tearfully mumbling how thankful she was. Wolf chuckled "Anytime kid now go get some sleep we've got a long day ahead of us tomorrow" Fawn nodded and headed off to bed. A family.. finally I'm not going to be alone forever!" she thought to herself and went to her bed quickly falling asleep excited for what tomorrow would bring.

>(Well that's the end of chapter one! please feel free to leave comments and make suggestions. If you're worried about Lab he will be introduced in the next chapter! Thanks for reading and I hope you have a beautiful sleep! peaceout)

2. Trouble In Pairadise

(AUTHORS NOTE: The characters in this story were created by my dear Friend Speestergirl96 And can be found in the II)

Chapter Two Trouble in Pairadise **

It had been a week since everyone had settled in and were doing well getting along acting like a realfamily it was great, and that was what truly worried Fawn. She knew it was too good to be true because once it seemed like everything was going in your favor the world would turn everything upside down and that's just what it did. Every one was in the training room Fawn was sparring with her roommate and partner fox when they heard wolf's void over the intercom telling everyone to meeting the living room. Once they got there Fawn could feel that something was wrong her body started to shake nervously Fox noticed and grabbed her hand to comfort her. Fawn looked over at her and smiled a weak smile and Fox squeezed her hand. Lynx finally growled " okay so why are we here exactly?" There's was then a loud knock at the door and Spartans from the commanders office walked in pushing two guys in one very loudly protesting " Alright easy hands off I got it I got it no need for pushing " the other looked around nervously like he was gonna be sick. Wolf moved to the front as the officer in charge looked around "which one of you is commander wolf?!" He barked . Wolf looked at him "that would be me what can I do for you?" The two boys were pushed forwards "two more recruits for your team Commanders orders " She looked them over and nodded Fawn looked at them "oh no" She thought "No wolf no please don't do what I think you're going to do don't change things on me I like fox she understands pleease" She thought to herself. As soon as the Commanders soldiers left Wolf looked at the both of them "Alright names what you do and something you think that's important for us to know " the loud one from earlier walked up with a charming smirk " I'm king I can hack anything and I'm eye candy" he winks at Fawn who immediately looks down blushing awkwarsly. Fox snorts " you're eye candy then I'm empress of China" he looks over at Fox and smirked " and a very pretty empress at that" She rolled her eyes as Wolf pointed to the more timid one "and you" he looked up. " I'm Lab I'm In Stealth And explosives I'm also extremely claustrophobic" She nodded "Well I know a person who'll be a perfect partner for you " a Fawn gulped and walked towards him knowing wolf would pick her she wasn't to happy about it but at least she wasn't stuck with king who . "Fawn and lab and Fox and king" fox groaned and King smirked Fawn made a soft whimpering sound Lab shot her a smile which made her feel a little better "Okay go train" Wolf said so Fawn grabbed labs hand and ran to the training room. "Whoa wait what's your name I kinda wasn't paying to much attention to many people " She chuckled. "I'm Fawn I work With cars and other vehicles I have severe anxiety and get over excited easily" She said quickly and pulled him into the training room. "We're team building today we're playing TDM which means team death match well be split into two groups we'll probably be with Lynx she's always second team captain she's the strongest... I'm talking alot sorry I just talk when I get nervous and " She feels lab pull on her hand " Fawn.. it's fine it's cute when you ramble "

She blushed hard "okay this is the training room " She said leading him into the huge room. The room was huge with a running track and weapons every where " Wolf will pick where in the world we'll train hesita hooked up the special simulator to make it look and feel like we're actually where wolf picked yesterday it was Antarctica and I was freezing. " he chuckled "Well if it's cold today I'll keep you warm and protect you" he said quietly " thanks.. I think we'll make a good t-" She tripped over her feet and shut her eyes tight waiting for the impact that never came. She opened her eyes and saw she was in Labs arms "oh.. thanks I'm super clumsy by the way" he chuckled "so I've noticed so uhm where do you think she'll pick today" Fawn thought and looked around "the jungle " once every one came in wolf explained what would go down and then where they would be playing she did indeed pock the jungle once the teams were set hesita started to change the scenery and climate all of a sudden the air became hot sticky and heavy. Lynx looked at them "okay every one. . Well every one but Fawn hide in trees Fawn you just stay low and run as fast as you can. " Fawn nodded and quickly dashed off hiding quickly lab hiding in the tree above her he looked down at her and smiled putting his finger to his lips and she nodded. "The Game has started" the loud voice boomed in the arena Fawn hid and watched as her teammates went to invade the other side of the jungle. Bjorn had taken down Hawk and Phoenix had got Turtle Fawn watched as she saw King dash towards her she yelped and ducked when she heard a xwoosh' her partner had jumped from the tree above her and taken care of him. "On your left!" Lab yelled. Fawn quickly got up and jumped off of the tree and tackled fox who she fought with for at least fifteen minutes fox ultimately killed her but she put up a good fight came away with plenty of battle the game was done lab ran over to her "your cheeks bleeding does it hurt are you okay can you" he was quickly cut off by fox shoving him out of the way " oh ouch I got ya pretty good huh?" Fawn shrugged and let her bandage the wound. "Hey! She's my partner don't push me out of the.." Fox glared at him" Listen here new kid she was my partner first and she still is my sister and roommate so back off I'm also a nurse so shutup" Wolf looked over at them and Fawn shook her head and mouthed "We're okay " She nodded and went back to talking to hawk. Lab looked down " okay sorry " Fawn grabbed his hand making him look up at her and smiled softly at him "thankyou for keeping me safe" he blushed softly " No problem that's what partners are for." After that they all went to do there own thing wolf went for a run Bjorn and Lynx were sparring the boys had hooked up a video game console and king was hacking it to where they could play any game they wanted. Fox had went to the room to read or something so Fawn disappeared to take a shower. After she got all cleaned up she walked into the living area and jumped onto the couch sitting behind language "whoa hey there " She smiled " what are you guys playing now" She looked at the screen to see some sort of building game "ah they're building some sort of castle in mine craft " She nodded "and what are you doing?" She asked him. "I was seeing if I could pull up old play lists I had saved to this stupid device I found" her ears perked up when he said that " Lemme see!" She said excitedly snatching the machine from him "It's an ipod! Where did you find this" he shrugged. "Some house we ransacked looking for a place to stay " She go up quickly running to wolf's room asking if she could use the laptop. After explaining why wolf gave her permission and she ran off to where it was. Lab finally caught up with her out of breath "hey.. wait.. stop ughh why are you so quick "She shushed him and hooked up the laptop then the ipod to the laptop and pulled the Playlist up. " Tada " She said softly and showed him the Playlists. "Wow that's some good stuff " he reached over her shoulder and hit the play button. A song came blasting out of the speakers. She quickly turned it down. "I love this song I mean I like all of the songs on this Playlist it's pretty amazing " he cooked an eyebrow at her "a girl like you likes music like this?" She glared at him "just because I'm tiny and look all sweet and innocent doesn't mean I have to like pink and like country and wear dresses!" She protested as he chuckled. "Whoa whoa whoa calm down princess I was just team " She stuck her tongue out " don't call me princess." He chuckled once more when there was a knock on the rooms door it was turtle "hey guys wolf says lights out in ten" Fawn smiled at the lanky boy "thanks Turtle we were just finishing up" he smiled softly and disappeared. Lab looked at her " so uhm where do I stay " She grabbed his hand and led him to his room "here you stay here with king he's your roommate I'll see you tomorrow we get up pretty early so get some sleep. He nodded and hugged her quickly then went to her room. She bit her lip and walked to her room where fox was siting on her bed waiting for Fawn. "So.. what do you think of your new partner. " Fawn shrugged "He's okay why what do you think of yours "Well first off he likes you and my partners a jerk so far" She made a face. Fawn giggled then stopped "wait what do you mean Lab likes me?! How do you know" fox chuckled "oh honey it's way too obvious you're just to innocent and oblivious to see" She scowled "I am not." Fox shook her head "you are too but I'll tell you more tomorrow let's get some sleep I'm exhausted " Fawn nodded and fell asleep after curling up into a ball on her bed.

Chapter Three My Partners as messed up as I am... GREAT!

it had been a week since the new team members had shown up and everything was going fine. Fawn and Lab were closer than ever before they were practically inseparable spending every moment from when they woke till they had to go to sleep together. So when Wolf said that they were going to do a partners mission that challenged each partner in their team with something they struggled with. For Lab he and Fawn were taken to the training room and hesita was told to set it to a certain place lab seemed fine Fawn on the other hand had enough nervousness for the both of them. "Oh no what's she gonna do what's gonna happen this is so scary I hope it's not..." "FAWN" She was cut off by lab yelling at her "take a deep breath princess this is my mission not yours so calm down" She took a deep breath and nodded. Soon a loud noise filled the room and there were people every where Fawn let go of labs hand and seemed to get lost in the fake crowd. Lab began to panick getting very nervous fidgeting with the hilt of his knife " fawn" he said looking for her. He now began to panick more and started running trying to yell over the noise "FAWN FAWN WHERE ARE YOU FAWN!" He started to freak out pushing through the people looking for his partner running when he finally spotted her and grabbed her " WHERE DID YOU GO WHYD YOU LEAVE ME WHT THE HELL?!" He didn't mean to screan at her but he was so scared. She sniffled "I was taking orders from wolf she told me to run from you to help with your training " She said quietly crying. The people all disappeared as Lab pulled his partner in close and hugged her tightly "I'm sorry princess I just lost you and I couldn't deal with that" he said softly in her ear. She immediately felt better and hugged him back tightly "It's fine don't worry about it .. okay next teams turn my turn will be later" they walked out to the main room hand in hand and sat on the couch with the ipod ear buds one in his ear and one in hers her head was on his shoulder with his arm slung over his shoulder. "Fox was right " Fawn thought to herself " he does like me. .. maybe I like him too just maybe" She bit her lip and closed her eyes thinking what her next move would be.
